Student process checklist

1. I can document and reflect on my process.
2. I can write and structure a report, providing the required evidence.
3. I can explain the context(s) of the theorist and the selected aspect(s) of theory.
4. I can use a range of appropriate primary and secondary sources effectively.
5. I can explore the theory, employing a range of carefully selected, appropriate and relevant practical techniques.
6. I can explain and justify my particular approach and choices in relation to my stated intentions.
7. I can reflect on feedback and evaluate the impact this feedback has had on my work and the action I have taken.
8. I can employ appropriate and effective theatrical techniques to present the selected aspect(s) of theory in practice.
9. I can demonstrate a sustained and highly effective practical application of the selected aspect(s) of theory that clearly and appropriately fulfills my stated intentions.
10. I can provide a thorough and effective evaluation of the presented solo theatre piece, carefully considering the extent to which my intentions were met.
11. I can reflect on challenges faced and my personal discoveries.